Dear Shoe fly Pie:

I saw your picture in The Numismatist in recognition of the ANA honor you received in Atlanta in August and I want to congratulate you belatedly. I was at the ANA in Atlanta but didn't get to talk to you.

I hope you continue to enjoy your numismatic work and experiences just as I do. My wife and I just visited 8 rare book libraries in Philadelphia with a group of St. Louis book lovers. We had a marvelous time.

Thrive,

Eric P. Newman
